"Stieff" at Spartanburg Festival.

The house of Chas. M. Stieff who have been so well known in the piano world since the year 1842 supplied the concert grand piano that was used at the Spartanburg May Festival this year. As Mr. Theodore Harrison, an artist of the festival said, "It has a most beautiful tone, brilliant, yet with the softness which is so necessary in accompanying."

WAS HE MURDERED?

Mr. Hagood Brown Goes Fishing. Does Not Return—Hat and Keys In Boat—Negro Arrested.

Joe Dawkins, a negro, was placed in the Newberry jail on Sunday by Sheriff Blease, pending the investigation of the disappearance of Hagood Brown on Saturday night. Hagood Brown is the son of Mr. W. F. Brown, a prominent farmer of the Broad river section of the county, and about 25 or 30 years old. He left his father's house about 11 o'clock Saturday night in company with two negro men, Joe Dawkins and John Simms, to go to the river to set some "tro" lines. They first went to Strothers ferry which is very near the home of Mr. Brown. Hagood Brown told the negro John Simms to remain there while he and Joe Dawkins went on up the river to set the lines.

The next morning the boat was found in the river in eddy water and in it was the hat, the keys and a lantern belonging to Mr. Brown. The water at his place is from eight to 12 feet deep. The boat was near Strothers. Joe Dawkins who started out with Mr. Brown to set the lines was found Sunday morning on the Fairfield side of the river, near Blairs some two and a half miles above Strothers with his feet in the river and sound asleep. A pistol was found on Dawkins with one chamber empty. Dawkins admits being with Mr. Brown and from him the tale of leaving Simms at Strothers and going on with Mr. Brown up the river to Blairs and getting in the boat and setting the lines is obtained but he claims to know nothing further. He says he was too drunk to remember the incidents of the night before in detail.

Sheriff Blease and Deputy Dorroh went down to the scene Sunday afternoon and arrested Dawkins and placed him in jail where he is held to await further developments.

The party that was dragging the river on Sunday and Monday found the body of Brown about noon Monday and phoned the sheriff that the body had been found. No particulars were given. The body at that time had not been examined.

Sheriff Blease took Coroner Lindsay and Dr. J. B. Setzler down to the scene and the inquest was held Monday afternoon.

Later.

The body of Mr. Brown was found Monday morning about 10 o'clock, within a few feet of the place where he was last seen at by Messrs. Leo Adams and George Hentz, who with others were engaged in the search. Sheriff Blease and Coroner Lindsay were notified and came at once to the scene for the purpose of holding the inquest. Drs. Moore and Setzler performed an autopsy and came to the conclusion that the cause of the death was drowning. Two or three witnesses were taken and the inquest was adjourned to be resumed Thursday in the sheriff's office at which time other testimony will be taken. There were found no bruises on Mr. Brown's body. It is thought that he either fell in the water or was thrown. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at St. Matthews church. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. P. OByd.

Mr. William H. Wendt Dead.

Mr. William H. Wendt died at his home in Newberry at 2 o'clock on Sunday morning at the age of 65 years. Mr. Wendt was a German. He came to this country about 40 years ago and engaged in farming and until a few years ago lived in the Caldwell community. For the last two years he has resided in Newberry. He is survived by his wife and three children, two boys and one girl. He was a member of the Methodist church and a good citizen. He was buried at Lebanon Methodist church, the service being conducted by the Rev. S. C. Morris, on Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

MAY EXPEL THE FRENCH

Germans May Drive Out Inhabitants of Alsace-Lorraine.

Berlin Cable to New York Sun.

The Lokalanzeiger prints a statement, which is probably semi-official, in reference to the excitement in France over Germany's reported intention to exclude French citizens from Alsace-Lorraine. The statement is to the effect that such action is not contemplated at present, but it may materialize if French agitators persist in fomenting agitation as they are doing now. The paper adds that if expulsion were determined upon there would certainly be an excellent reason therefor.

OLD FOLKS DAY

Observed at Prosperity—Excellent Address by Dr. Cromer—Dinner on the Grounds.

Old Folks day was observed in Grace Lutheran church at Prosperity on Sunday. The plan for the observance of such a day was suggested by Mr. A. H. Kohn, now of Columbia, when he was a citizen of Prosperity, and superintendent of the Sunday school of the church some years ago. It is a beautiful idea. And has now become a fixed and regular event of the church. The day is observed by songs and addresses of welcome and a sermon or regular address suitable to the occasion and dinner is served on the church lawn so as to give those who are present from far and near an opportunity to spend an hour in social intercourse and in renewing old acquaintances and talking over the events of other and some times happier days. It is always a very happy occasion. The good people of Prosperity take great interest in the day and furnish good water and plenty to eat and do everything possible to make it pleasant for their guests.

It was observed last Sunday. The weather was ideal for the occasion, though the farmers all think they are badly in need of rain and that the weather is too cold for cotton. However, it was pleasant for old folks day and we may all be glad for that. The address was made by Dr. Geo. B. Cromer and it was beautiful and appropriate to the occasion. The music by the choir was fine and everything passed off very pleasantly.

The following programme was rendered:

Voluntary—The Solid Rock.
Song—No. 374 Book of Worship.
Scripture reading by the Rev. C. H. Nabors.

Prayer by the Rev. C. H. Nabors.
Welcome address by six little girls, Rebecca Harmon, Louise Bedenbaugh, Myra Hunter, Elizabeth Brown, Ethel Shealy, Mary Kohn.

Welcome address by Prof. J. S. Wheeler.

Response to welcome by A. H. Kohn.

Reading, The Grand Old Hymn—Miss Elizabeth Hawkins.

Song—Happy Day.

Address—Dr. Geo. B. Cromer.

Offertory—Songs that Mother Sang.

Song No. 23 Book of Worship.

Song—God Be With You Till We Meet Again.

Doxology was pronounced by the Rev. C. P. Boozer and the congregation adjourned to the grove where a sumptuous picnic repast was served by the good housewives of Prosperity.

THE LITTLE MOUNTAIN SCHOOL

Closing Exercises Next Week—A Successful School Year—Prof. Ballentine Re-elected.

Special to The Herald and News.

Little Mountain, May 18.—The closing exercises of the Little Mountain high school will begin here on Friday evening, May 22, with a recital to be given by the music department. The Rev. J. W. Horine, of Philadelphia, Pa., editor-elect of the Lutheran Church Visitor, will preach the sermon on Sunday at 11 o'clock.

On Monday night a cantata, "Midsummer Eve," will be given by the grammar school department.

The exercises will be concluded Tuesday night with the following programme by the members of the tenth grade:

Salutary—Carl Dreher.
Class History—Willedge Saealy.
Class Poem—Clyde Swygert.
Prophecy—Harold Wise.
Will—Miss Louise Shealy.
Valedictory—Miss Minnie Lee Shealy.

The literary address will then be delivered by Dr. Geo. B. Cromer, of Newberry.

The school is closing a most successful year under the direction of the following teachers: G. H. Ballentine, principal; Mrs. J. C. Swygert, Misses Ernestine Wicker, Era Kibler, Elberta Sease and Vannie Lake. The music department is in charge of Miss Sarah Rawl.

Prof. Ballentine has been elected for another school year and will probably accept. The other teachers have not yet been chosen.

Dominick-Langford.

Mr. Frank Langford and Miss Lucy Dominick were married at the Lutheran parsonage Sunday, May 17, at 2 o'clock by the Rev. P. E. Shealy. They will make their home in Saluda. The groom is a prosperous young man of Saluda. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dominick, of Prosperity. She will be greatly missed in her church and in the community in which she lived.

Their many friends wish for them a smooth journey on life's sea—unclouded to the end by the slightest ripple of sorrow.

ZION SCHOOL CLOSSES.

A Successful Session—Good Dinner. Good Programme—Large Attendance.

The Zion school is another of the rural graded schools established last year and had its first session this year as a two teacher school. It was taught last year by Miss Iva Eaddy, who gave entire satisfaction. This year she taught again and was ably assisted by Miss Bessie Huggins. The enrollment was a little more than 50 and the average attendance above 40. The school has been very successfully managed and the school spirit pervades the entire community.

This is a very historic school. Prof. J. B. O'N. Holloway says he graduated from this same school on the 29th day of August, 1869, during the time the school was taught by H. N. Julius D. Dreher, afterward president of Roanoke college for 25 years, and now a consul representing the United States in the dominion of Canada.

During last year another room was added to the building and it is now a very comfortable two room school building with modern appliances.

The school on Friday closed an eight months term with a very creditable exhibition by the pupils.

Miss Eaddy offered a gold medal to that pupil attaining the highest average during the year, deportment, attendance, class standing, all being considered. The medal was won by Miss Carrie Flik with an average of 96.6; second honor to Miss Daisy Young with an average of 95; third honor to Mr. Olin Hentz with an average of 94. The presentation was made by Prof. W. S. Reiser, who also conducted the closing exercises as master of ceremonies. At the conclusion of the exercises a most excellent picnic was served, just such a dinner as the good housewives of this community know how to prepare and to serve. There was a large crowd present and every one was in a good humor and the community spirit was further developed. Miss Eaddy has been re-elected, and will return. Miss Huggins will also return.

The following is the programme as rendered:

8:30. When the Spring With Fairy Finger.

Two Little Welcomes—Alleen Long, W. T. Dickert.

Dialogue, The Matrimonial Advertisement, (two scenes).

Solo—Carrie Folk.

Play by primary grades: Mabel's Surprise Callers.

Recitation, The One-Legged Goose—Gladys Richardson.

Motion song, Jolly Bachelors.

Life: A school scene—Five girls.

Song by primary grades, Churning.

The Sniggles Family.

Song by first grade, Sweet Bunch of Daisies.

Parasol drill—Twelve girls.

Delivery of medal.

Song, Ring On, Ye Bells.

POMARIA SCHOOL CLOSSES

Fine Exhibition—Children Reflect Credit Upon Themselves and Teachers.

The closing exercises of the Pomaria graded school were held on Friday evening of last week. The school the past year has been taught by Prof. W. S. Reiser and Miss Lucy Ligon, with Miss Annie May Bedenbaugh as music teacher. This is one of the rural graded schools that was established last year. A new brick school house was erected and the school changed from a one teacher school to a two teacher school. From an old dilapidated wooden building to a handsome two story brick building with a large and convenient auditorium. The ladies of the community have purchased and put in the building a handsome piano. They are and have a right to be proud of the progress which the school has made and the wonderful improvement in equipment.

The exercises on Friday evening were creditable to the children and teachers and while a great many numbers were on the programme they were all short and the audience never tired but enjoyed to the utmost the entire programme. All the children did remarkably well and the programme went through without the slightest hitch.

Prof. Reiser has declined reelection but Miss Ligon has decided to remain with the school another term.

The following is the programme as rendered:

Conjugal Felicity.

A teacher in a Liverpool school was trying to find from a tiny child the name of his father, says the Liverpool Post. He seemed quite unable to think of it, so to help him she asked:

"What do you call him?"

"I call him father," was the reply.

"Well, what does your mother call him?"

The response was eloquent of the manners of the neighborhood: "She doesn't call him anything—she likes him."
